

Journey Through The Cities Of Refuge

Lesson #29

Spiritual Warfare: Evil Spirits Unite

August 12, 2026

God encourages the building and rebuilding of walls as a symbol of protection, strength and a way to bring glory to God and demonstrate His power.

Perizzite comes from a root word meaning to separate.

- Fragment > individuals & body of believers
- Desire to mix and mingle with the wicked world around them.
- Don't care attitude; limited vision; live life with no rules
- Unprotected; holes in the walls of protection; squatters
- Enemy could enter at will; not protected by walls

All the towns in Biblical times were surrounded by walls for protection, except the Perizzites.

- The Perizzite Spirit, a device of Satan, encourages believers to live free without walls.

Simple country people who lived in the open lands as farmers and herdsman yet deeply entangled in the spiritual corruption and pagan practices of Canaan.

They are the quiet occupants of the land, the ever-present reminder that faith must live surrounded by unbelief.

Key: Faith is proven when you walk faithfully in a land filled with different voices.

Goals of the Perizzite Spirit:

1. Cause you to lose courage
2. Let your guard down
3. Cause holes in your wall - allows for easy enemy access - DESTROY your walls
4. Separate you from God and His Word - Tenacious at casting doubt at God's Word
5. Separate you from knowing who you are in Christ
6. Squatter spirit; one with no walls; dispossess you from what belongs to you
7. Break down your defenses
8. Rob you of your earthly and heavenly inheritance in Christ
9. Separate a body of believers through false teaching

Warning: The Perizzite spirit seeks an unguarded opening in your life or an unguarded moment, and it wants to squat there. Much damage results when we leave an opening unprotected

Girgashites are symbolic of persistent obstacles in our spiritual journey.

- Dweller in clay soil or black mud
- One who turns back from a pilgrimage = Turning Back Spirit
- Drag you away from God and/or pluck you out of your place of destiny

This spirit will team up with any other wicked spirit to get you, of your own free will and decision, to give up and turn back to the world, the flesh, and to Satan.

- Leads you from focusing on heavenly, eternal things or things ABOVE.
- Your focus will be on what can be SEEN and VISIBLE.

- Concentrates on material gain and wealth - covets the momentary, not eternal things
- NO focus on things that can add value to your destiny
- Eternal Life > Not in their life's agenda
- You can be blindsided due to the PRIDE of your flesh

Girgashite Spirit Manifested In Man

- Spirit causes the victim to make impulsive decisions
 - Short-sighted vision of the temporal
 - Disregard the INVISIBLE things of the Spirit
 - Judge all things through VISIBLE parameters
 - Base decisions on NATURAL UNDERSTANDING
- Very difficult to dissuade from their decisions, especially when they are told the spiritual causes and effects and ramifications of their actions.
- They are unstable people who run from God.

Driven by the lust of the eye; what appears good; sensual; walk by sight, not by faith

- Possess an anti-faith spirit; are faithless people and a faith killer in others.
- Without faith it is impossible to please God > Girgashites cannot please God.

Someone who is totally consumed by earthliness is largely guided by reasoning and logic.

If it does not make sense in "their mind" then it is wrong.

Human reasoning, an enemy of faith, dismisses spiritual things we cannot grasp with our physical minds & senses. Much of what God does defies the mind of natural man. This is a huge spirit to overcome because faith toward God is the only weapon to overcome this spirit.

These 2 evil spirits are symbolic of the many smaller yet persistent obstacles in our spiritual journey. We must remain as vigilant with the subtle enemies as we are with the stronger enemies. It is often the smaller, unnoticed influences that lead to our downfall.

I Cor. 3:1-3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. ² I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. ³ For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

A carnal Christian claims to believe in Jesus but:

- continues to live a life controlled by worldly desires.
- They have given in to their sin nature and are not actively pursuing sanctification and spiritual growth. Where is the Potter's Wheel in their lives?
- They walk by sight; not by faith. They live in the flesh instead of in the Spirit.

Gal. 5:16 Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

Lot and Abraham can be seen as representations of the flesh and the spirit, respectively. Abraham exemplifies a life of faith and closeness to God, while Lot's choices reflect a more carnal, worldly lifestyle. Lot, a symbol of a carnal believer, chose to live in the sinful city of Sodom. He prioritized worldly comforts over spiritual values, which reflects the struggle between spiritual and worldly living. His story illustrates how a believer can be saved yet still entangled in worldly desires and behaviors. His life illustrates the challenges of living a faith-filled life while being influenced by worldly temptations.

- Was Lot saved?

II Pet. 2:7-8 And delivered just Lot, vexed [worn down] with the filthy conversation [lifestyle] of the wicked: ⁸ (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed [tormented] his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

- Lot lived far below his privileges and was out of fellowship with the Lord.

Lot's Departure from Abram:

Gen. 13:1-5 And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south. ² And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. ³ And he went on his journeys from the south even to Bethel, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Hai; ⁴ Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

⁵ And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

- Lot had a tent but NO altar. He did not call on the Lord for wisdom in making decisions.
- Up out of Egypt: came out physically but Egypt was still in his heart

⁶ And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

⁷ And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land.

Note: Abraham foresees a danger of a falling out and proposes they should separate. [13:8-9]

- Abram gives Lot the choice. Lot, in his greed, took full advantage of it.

Gen 13:10-11 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. ¹¹ Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

Note: Lot lifted up his eyes. This was the beginning of a decline which led to a tragic end.

- The eye-gate is one of the avenues through which temptations attack our soul.

I John 2:16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

Truth: Walking by sight is the cause of most of our failures and sorrows.

Gen. 3:6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat,
Joshua 7:21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them...

➤ Eve, Lot, Achan: I Saw I Coveted I Took

Note: The heart of every problem is the problem in the heart.

Rom. 13:14b make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts.

Instead of lifting up his eyes to heaven, Lot lifted up his eyes to the plain of Jordan and stopped there. The eyes see what the heart loves. Walking by sight

- Does not use wisdom from above [no altar]; analytical thinking like natural man
- Lot brought with him out of Egypt something besides "herds and flocks."
- Lot contracted the spirit of Egypt and acquired a taste for its "fleshpots."

Clinging To Egypt: You cannot grasp the perishable in one hand and the imperishable in the other. Eventually you have to let go of one to grasp the other.

Covetousness—an insatiable appetite for more things—leads to all kinds of evil [I Tim. 6:10].

Prov. 15:27a He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house,

Robert South: "Covetousness is both the beginning and the end of the devil's alphabet, the first vice in corrupt nature that moves, and the last which dies."

Note: Lot journeyed east - towards Ai which means a heap of ruin; consequences of sin

Turned his back on Bethel [house of God] and toward Ai [ruins]; turning back spirit

Note: Lot's heart was centered on wealth and worldly achievement, while Abraham wanted only to please the Lord.

If Abram chooses to walk by faith and Lot chooses to walk by sight, it is impossible for Lot to remain with Abram.

Amos 3:3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

- Abram endured as seeing Him who is invisible.
- Lot's heart was set upon the things he could see now - - the temporary.
- They could not dwell together - - a moral impossibility

Gen. 13:12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

Lot: He chose the land like the land of Egypt [Gen. 13:10]. He was still attached to Egypt [the world and all it had to offer] in his heart. [Spirit that hovers over new or carnal Christians]

Gen. 13:13 But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

I Sam. 16:7 The Lord sees not as man sees.

- Lot > the plain appeared "well-watered and as the garden of the Lord..."
- God > the cities of the plain were inhabited by people who were "wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly."

Genesis 14: God, who is faithful, gives Lot a very definite warning.

The Evil Empire: 14:1-4 Group of 4

Chedorlaomer king of Elam Persia/Iran Amraphel king of Shinar Babylon/Iraq

Arioch king of Ellasar Lebanon ?

Tidal king of nations Possibly an empire of small nations

These were all part of a coalition based on the Satanic empire of Nimrod, "mighty predator before the Lord" who founded Babylon, Nineveh and other great ancient cities.

He also built the Tower of Babel.

This was a very oppressive regime based on star worship, magic and sorcery.

The 5 Foolish Kings Of The Valley Of Siddim

Bera King of Sodom Birsha King of Gomorrah Shinab King of Admah

Shemeber King of Zeboiim Zoar King of Bela

³ All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea. [Dead Sea]

The 5 foolish kings of Sodom and Gomorrah were "small fry" but were very wealthy heads of city-states involved in trade.

They served Chedorlaomer for 12 years and rebelled against him in year 13.

The 4 Kings of the Evil Empire destroyed 7 cities BEFORE they had the war with the 5 foolish kings of the valley of Siddim.

After they destroyed the 7 cities, the 4 evil kings made war with the 5 foolish kings.

Sodom & Gomorrah were attacked, defeated and taken captive by a confederation of kings.

They took the goods of Sodom & Gomorrah with LOT and other people.

Abraham armed 318 of his trained servants born in his house and went after them.

Abraham's 318 trained men attacked at night and chased Chedorlaomer's huge imperial army northward for nearly 300 miles!

Abraham liberated all of Israel, Jordan, Lebanon and Syria.

Abraham's God was greater than those of the Persians and Babylonians and of Nimrod's occultic practices.

A supernatural victory resulted in him bringing back the goods, the people and Lot.

Recall: Abram: up out of Egypt, tent, altar, called on name of the Lord, wisdom from above

YET, this experience FAILED to teach Lot the evil of being associated with the world.

He recovered his freedom and his property Only To Return To Sodom!!

Wow! Even God's providential dealings are insufficient to move Lot's heart.

Note: Abram risked his life for Lot. He knew the choices Lot made and still pursued him.

Lot was a prisoner of war; held captive by the enemy

Abram's actions point to Jesus Christ who rescues us.

Abraham's Offering To The LORD

Gen. 18:1-8 The LORD and 2 of His angels visit Abraham. Notice how Abraham ministered.

Abraham served the LORD personally.

Abraham was 99 years old and a wealthy sheikh. He could have entrusted this task to his chief steward or one of his more than 300 servants [14:14].

Abraham, a man of faith, ministered immediately. Faith does not delay in serving the Lord.

Only after he had served his guests did Abraham stand still [v. 8].

Abraham served the Lord generously and gave Him the best that he had.

Abraham's service was marked with humility.

Gen. 18:2 Bowed to his guests

Gen. 18:3, 5 Called himself a servant - Stood near to be available if needed

Abraham served the LORD cooperatively and involved the ministries of others.

D.L. Moody: "I would rather put ten men to work than do the work of ten men."

Abraham's Intimacy With God: [altar to God]

Gen. 18:16-33 The LORD makes known to Abraham His plan regarding Sodom/Gomorrah.

➤ The secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him. [Ps. 25:14]

The 2 angels who accompanied the Lord to Abram's tent go on toward Sodom while the Lord remains with Abram who intercedes on behalf of the "righteous" who may be in the doomed city.

Genesis 19: Lot has lived in Sodom about 20 years.

Gen. 19:1-3 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

Note: False Humility Stinks! Lot bowed himself to 2 angels but would not bow to God's command for sexual holiness.

² And he said, "Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way. Wow!

He offers them his hospitality, but they refuse and say they will abide in the street all night.

➤ Their reluctance to enter Lot's dwelling is in sharp contrast to their fellowship with Abram. This indicates the condition of Lot's soul.

³ And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him and entered into his house; and he made them a meal, and did bake unleavened bread [essentially crackers], and they did eat.

➤ Not generous in his hospitality

Mal. 1:6-10 God rejects their offerings. They offered the blind and the crippled.

He essentially says, "Would you give that to your governor? Then I will not accept it either!"

Consider David's heart: "I will not give the Lord what cost me nothing." [II Sam. 24:24]

Consider: Friends of God give Him their best. Friends of the world offer Him their scraps.

Note: Lot's Lack of Intimacy with God: Did not reveal His plan to Lot [no altar]

Note: God never goes to Lot's home. He stays with Abraham, as Abraham intercedes for Sodom.

It wasn't so much about Lot's location. Daniel lived and worked in Babylon. Joseph lived and worked in Egypt. Lot's problem was that Sodom was in his heart. He lived a compromised Christian life. The world affected him, instead of him affecting the world, and because of his worldliness, he lacked intimacy with God. Even though Lot was a believer, his life was such that the Lord did not feel "at home" with him. Separated believers enjoy the close walk [II Cor. 6:14-18] and communion with the Lord. [John 14:21-24]

Greek scholar Kenneth Wuest translated Paul's prayer in Ephesians 3:17 "that Christ might finally settle down and feel completely at home in your hearts through your faith."

Gen. 19:4-11 ALL the men of the city come to Lot's house. They desired to have homosexual relations with the angels. They wanted to "know" them = carnal sense; sexually
Lot condemned them: Do not act so wickedly
He offers his 2 daughters to the men for sexual purposes. The men refuse the women.
Consider: Before the pressure of this event, Lot looked "godly" and outwardly moral. He offered hospitality and tried to protect the visitors. When the pressure came, he compromised and offered his daughters! Trials reveal what is in the heart.

Gen. 19:12-13 And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:
¹³ For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

Gen. 19:14 Lot relays the warning to his family. Get up, get out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city!"

Quote: In those twilight hours before sunrise, Sodom saw more missionary activity from Lot than in all the previous years. His efforts were not trained upon the men of the city, however, but were a frantic and futile effort to save his own family, whom he had neglected to win. The powerlessness of his testimony is revealed in the response by his sons-in-law when he warned them: The Lord is about to destroy the city!

- They said: "he seemed as one who mocked." [Gen. 19:14]
- His words had no weight because of his previous ways.

Quote: Morning came without one new convert, let alone one righteous soul who would flee the wrath of God.

Gen. 19:15 And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

Gen. 19:16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters;
the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth and set him without the city.

- Laid hold = hazaq = strong grip; overpower
- Shows where his heart and affections lay

Gen. 19:17-19 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my LORD: Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

God pointed out His mercy in the middle of v. 16

After being spared by the two angels, Lot argues and barter with them.

Gen. 19:20-22 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one:

Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

He begged to be allowed to go his own way and keep a bit of his old way of life intact.

Derek Kidner: "Not even brimstone will make a pilgrim of him:

he must have his little Sodom again if life is to be supportable."

²¹ And he said to him, "See, I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken.

- God didn't prevent him. The Lord will let you hang onto your sinful way if you insist on it.
- God accepted Lot's whining request to disregard His instruction for Lot's infantile desire.
- God may let you have your way, but you will cost yourself trouble.
- Your ideas, if God allows them for a hard heart, will never work like His wisdom.

²² Hurry, escape there. For I cannot do anything until you arrive there."

The inhabitants of the cities of the plain had no idea this new day would be the last day of their lives. Life was going on as usual, and then the fire fell.

Gen. 19:23-26 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar.

²⁴ Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens. ²⁵ So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. She died within steps of safety.

Gen. 19:30-38 depict the final state of Lot, the carnal, infantile Christian.

He moved from sitting at the gate of the city to sitting in a cave.

Retreating from the world in seclusion is not the solution for our worldly lusts.

Seclusion is no substitute for sanctification.

In a drunken stupor, he became the father of 2 nations, both of which would be a continual plague and enemy to Israel.

Moab and Ammon were destined to provide the worst carnal seduction in the history of Israel [Baal-Peor, Num. 25] and the cruelest religious perversion [Molech, Lev. 18:21]

Scripture warns: It is possible for a follower of Christ to be conformed to the world in such a way that it is hard to distinguish him from the non-believer.

I Pet. 2:1-2 Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

- Those who are spiritually minded have set aside all things that prevent spiritual growth.

Spiritual truth: Girgashite Spirit is the instrument of Satan to kill off new believers at birth, before they become established.

- This evil giant is a predator who hovers over infant believers to devour them.
- The spirits often work together in teams to ensnare the believer.
- The Hivite spirit and the Canaanite spirit work with the Girgashite spirit to pull a young believer back into the world - the lusts of the flesh and the pleasures of the world.

Stronger believers must recognize this danger and stand guard on their behalf in order that a young believer can be established in his position in the plan of God. It is essential to get babies well fed and protected at the same time [Discipleship is ESSENTIAL].

- There is a real sense of urgency, as there is for many mothers in nature, who have to ensure that, if their offspring are to survive the harsh climate, their babies must grow quickly and be able to go out into the world on their own - safe from predators.

Lot's choices reflect the influence of the Girgashite and the Perizzite spirits.

He presents a sobering warning to us of the kind of carnal life a true believer can lead.

Truth: Many Christians never completely shed the garment of the world, but instead, become more entrenched in it. Ensnared by a Girgashite spirit, one can drown in his own vomit.

Lot attempted to live his life in a city and then in a cave. We cannot become one with the world, but neither are we to flee from it. The proper balance between the city of Sodom and the cave is the tent of Abraham. We are to live in the world without becoming attached to it or conformed to it. We are to be strangers and pilgrims.

I Pet. 2:11-12 Beloved, I urge you as foreigners and strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts, which wage war against the soul. ¹² Keep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they slander you as evildoers, they may because of your good deeds, as they observe them, glorify God on the day of visitation.

Some lost people reject the Word because of the inconsistent lives of professed believers.

Do you walk the talk?

Lot's Tragic End

He was a recipient of God's magnified mercies and he squandered it!

He was singed, stripped of everything and traumatized by the severe discipline of the Lord.

His earthly life was a wretched failure, made up entirely of "wood, hay and stubble."

He was saved by the grace of God but saved so as through fire. [I Cor. 3:15]

He was snatched as "brand from the burning."

Lot, who tried to gain it all, lost it all. By the grace of God and by the skin of his teeth,

Lot was saved. But his life was wasted from an eternal point of view.

We are reminded of Paul's teaching about the judgment of believers in I Cor. 3:11-15:

For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

¹² Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, ¹³ each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort [quality] it is. ¹⁴ If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵ If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

At the Judgment Seat of Christ, some believers will be rewarded for their faithfulness on earth, while others barely escape the fire.

II Cor. 5:10 Paul said, I make it my aim to please Him. For we must all appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ; that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.
